

PAYAL KHANDWALA

BOMBAY

NEW DELHI | FLAGSHIP STORE

New Delhi has been and will always be an important city for us.

Our wait to find the right space, that fit the vision for our flagship store, took years of scouting and visits.

This finally came to an end when we found our new home at The Dhan Mill in Chhatarpur.

We wanted to create a space that carries forward the brand's distinct blueprint previously experienced in our past and current stores. And in doing so, brings to Delhi the spirit of our Bombay.

Our New Delhi based patrons are now able to interact with us in a tangible way, this is both integral to the brand and important for our clients to experience first-hand. Our newest flagship is a quietly luxurious space with minimal details that invites you to take pause. A space to discover, to escape to, to linger and to shop.
